6. Whether I am eligible for dividend.

Yes. Shareholders are eligible for dividend in proportion to the amount paid-up in the equity share capital of the Company.

7. What are the consequences if I do not pay the Second and Final Call Money and what will happen to my Rights Equity Shares?

Consequences on non-payment of Second and Final Call Money and status of my Rights Equity Shares:

- a) The Company shall be entitled to deduct from any future dividend payable to you, all sums of money outstanding on account of calls in relation to the partly paid-up equity shares of the Company; and
- b) The partly paid-up equity shares of the Company currently held by you, including the amount already paid thereon may be liable to be forfeited on failure to pay the Second and Final call, in accordance with the Articles of Association of the Company and the Letter of Offer.

8. When would the new partly paid-up shares be traded?

The partly paid up shares on being fully paid up will merge with the existing ISIN of the Company i.e. INE010M01023 and are expected to commence trading within a period of 2 to 3 weeks from the last date i.e. Tuesday, August 11, 2026 from making the payment of Second and Final Call.

9. What if there is any Excess / duplicate amount paid / short payment made?

Excess/duplicate amount paid, or amount paid by person who is not an Eligible Shareholder as on the Second and Final Call Record Date or short payment made by an Eligible Shareholder (in case the same cannot be adjusted towards payment of Second and Final Call Money), will be refunded as per following methods:

- a) ASBA Mode – Unblocking of funds in ASBA Account
- b) Cheque/ Demand Draft – Credit to the same bank account from where payment has been made

10. Whether any cash payment or part payment is permitted?

- a) Cash payment shall not be accepted.
- b) No part payment would be accepted, and part payment would be treated as non-payment which shall render the Rights Equity Shares, including the amount already paid thereon, liable to be forfeited in accordance with the provisions of the Act, the Articles of Association of the Company and the Letter of Offer. However, in relation to any payment made by a holder of the Rights Equity Shares pursuant to the Second and Final Call, which is lesser than the aggregate amount payable by such holder with respect to the Rights Equity Shares held by such holder as on the Second and Final Call Record Date, our Board or the Rights Issue Committee, may consider conversion of such lower number of Rights Equity Shares to be made fully paid-up, such that it is in proportion to the amount paid by such holder.

11. I am holding partly paid up shares in a demat account, can I apply through ASBA by using different demat account number?

The Eligible Shareholders shall ensure that the partly paid up shares are held in the demat account which is mentioned on the ASBA bid. If the Registrar finds during validations that the partly paid shares is held under a different demat account then such request for conversion to fully paid will not be accepted and the payment made will be returned. If the shareholder misses the opportunity to convert the shares into fully paid on account of this reason, neither the Registrar nor the company can be held responsible for the same.

12. What is the payment limit on net-banking?

The payment limit on net-banking is as determined by your individual bank. Please check the limits before making payment. In case the limit is lower than the amount due on the Second and Final call, you may make more than one payment to ensure that you pay the Second and Final Call money in full.

13. What happens if I enter incorrect demat account details while making payment?

If the demat account mentioned in the ASBA bid does not match the account holding the partly paid-up shares, the request for conversion will be rejected and payment will be refunded. Shareholders must ensure accuracy to avoid forfeiture.
